

Shannon Balfour is a third-generation psychiatric survivor who has lived experience of psychiatric detention. They self-identify as mad/crazy, disabled, and queer. Shannon is a McMaster University alumnus and they currently work as a community organizer in the city of Hamilton